A PLEA FOR THE POPE.

Archibishop Corrigan Issues a Pastoral Letter Condemning

BUMBERT'S TREATMENT OF LEO.

The Vatican Will Yet be the Seat of Temporal Power. HOW HISTORY HAS REPEATED ITSELF

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. NEW YORK, October 12.-Archbishop Corrigan has issued a pastoral letter announcing the annual collection of Peter's pence, which is to take place on the last Sunday of this month, in which he deals at length with the question of temporal sovereignty. It will be read in the Catholic churches this morning. In it he says: churches this morning. In it he says:

Without dwelling on the wrongs perpetrated in the violent occupation of Rome in September, 1870, the memory of which is still fresh in our minds, let us turn our thoughts to one or two facts of recent occurrence in the pontificate of Pope Leo XIII. Elected to his high office in a most critical period of the Church's history, he has succeeded, unarmed and defenseless, in winning from the civilized world a new recognition of the inherent strength of the papacy, and has again brought out in strong relief the immense moral power which belongs, as of right, to the successor of St. Peter. His great gifts of mind and heart, his vast crudition, his long experience of men and affairs, his consummate tact and prudence ought to make him pre-eminently successful in extending the

After acting as the arbiter between Spain and Germany in the affair of the Caroline Islands, the Holy Father, on the approach of his sacerdotal jubilee, intimated in his allocution of May 23, 1887, his desire of establishing satisfactory relations with Italy, the land of his birth and of his special predilection. Still more clearly in his letter of June 15, 1887, to the Secretary of State he expressed the same desire in moderate and conciliatory language. Acting on this surgestion, the faithful of Italy, on their part, took up the matter with alacrity. In accordance with law and with custom, it was proposed that those who had the right to suffrage and whose names consequently would carry great weight, should address a monster petition to the Government. There was no question in this petition of the restoration of temporal sovereignty; nothing, therefore, that could wound the susceptibilities of those in power, but simply the expression of the entrest wish that a more satisfactory state of affairs might be devised and the Pontiff enjoy necessary freedom. When the petition had already received the signatures of 500,000 names, the strong arm of authority intervened to forbid any further action, and not only prevented any additional expression of coinion but visited offlicials who OLIVE BRANCH OF PEACE. action, and not only prevented any additional expression of opinion but visited officials who expression of opinion but visited officials who had taken part in the movement with deprivahad taken part in the movement with depriva-tion of office. Such a course of proceeding goes far to show the policy of the actual Govern-ment and to prove how little it is disposed to keep the promises so plausibly made to the Catholic Courts of Europe immediately after the forcible occupation of Rome. The aim of the Government is plainly to reduce the Sov-ereign Pontiff to the condition of a private citizen, so that the possibility of his restora-tion to his lawful rights may be more and more difficult.

PERSECUTING THE CLERGY.

In further illustration of this point, attention may be called to the royal sanction of the new penal code which was promulgated on June 30 of this year, and which goes into effect on the first of January, 1890. This new body of law legislates with marked discrimination against the clergy, especially by making it impossible for them to advocate the rights of the Sov-ereign Pontiff without danger of pecuniary fines and imprisonment.

After quoting the sections of the code referred to, and comments upon them by more Catholic writers, the Archbishop continues Hence, on and after the first of January next, any Bishop or pastor of souls in Italy who dares to address his flock on the rights of the Holy Father, is subject to fine and imprisonment. Comment is superfluous. By royal sanction, might becomes right. Justice, honesty, sincerity sink to the level of words without meaning.

If the Holy Father be relegated to the condihave the way cleared for the Standard. As the Standard pipe line to Chicago has a capacity of 8,000 barrels a day and is run at about 3 cents a barrel, the difference between that his life would simply be life-leng imprise. sons, the Roman Pontiff cannot cease to pro-test, his life would simply be life-long imprison-ment. While it is hardly probable that the Government of Italy will venture to proceed to this extremity, in the face of public opinion, yet there can be no reasonable doubt from facts constantly occurring in Rome, that it is its set-tled determination to deprive the Supreme Pontiff slowly but surely of all vestige of real independence.

THE CHURCH IS SUPREME. According to the public press, the Prime Minister of Italy has declared his intention of reducing the Holy Father to the condition of simple bishop of Rome, so that having no juris-diction over the Church at large, there may be no grounds for his claim to temporal soverno grounds for his claim to temporal sovereignty. All Christian antiquity proclaims the world-wide spiritual jurisdiction of Peter and of Peter's successor. Every Catholic is bound to admit this primacy of the Apostolic See as an article of fatth. Now, while the Almighty, in His infinite wisdom, may devise many ways of securing the perfect liberty of the pontiff, despite all human opposition; still, as far as human prudence can determine, and as things actually exist, temporal sovereignty is the most natural means, and indeed, humanly speaking, a necessary means of securing the good government of the church.

Demonstrating this proposition, the Arch-

Demonstrating this proposition, the Archbishop quotes extensively from a pamphlet entitled "The Truth About the Roman Question" recently published by the Vatican press. The concluding quotation, and the Archbishop's comment upon it, are as

One hundred and seventy-one times the popes were despoiled of their dominions by their ene-mies, and as often by an example unheard of in the history of every other dynasty have they been re-established on their thrones, under circounstances and in times the most varied and dissimilar. This is a fact both unique and mo-mentous, because it reveals an order of special and unfailing Providence. What wonder, then, if Catholics hope to see it reproduced, even in our own day, for the 172d time?

be regarded as the operation of a natural law and treated accordingly. Now, the reasons that brought about the restoration of the pontiffs in the past continue to exist in all their force and fullness. In the present case 19 years, indeed, have lapsed since the usurpation of Rome, but these 19 years have not yet brought to the kingdom of Italy official recognition from a single court of Europe, and the Roman question, that has been so often pronounced "dead and buried," makes its voice of indignant protest resound at this hour from land to land, from continent to centinent, "to show that it still lives."

And even if to human kin the Roman question should seem to have lost its vitality, the spirit of God can breathe as He will over dry bones and make them instinct with life and grace and surpassing beauty, renewing their strength like the engle's. Of this we must rest assured, if our Lord wishes that His church, which is to last 'all days even to the consummation of the world' be protected by other means than by temporal power. He will manifest His counsel in good season; but meanwhile, and until His vicar assures us to the contrary, it is our duty to hasten the freedom of the Holy See by our prayers and good works and by every legitimate channel of defense.

The Archbishop's letter concludes with a

A CHURCH MUDDLE,

The Trustees Decline to Accept a Pasto Appointed by the Bishop. BUFFALO, October 12.-Quite a stir has been created among the trustees and congre gation of the Delaware Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, in this city, by the action of the Lockport Conference. Rev. Dr. Bashford, pastor of the church, had been appointed President of the Wesley University of Ohio, but by an arrangement with the university he was permitted, on certain conditions, to retain his pastorate here for another year. Notwithstanding this, the Conference appointed J. D. Phelps, of the Universal Church, of Rochester, to fill the pastorate of the Delaware avenue church. The stewards of the church met in secret session last evening, and elected Dr. Wentsession last evening, and elected Dr. Went-worth as temporary pastor. They also passed caustic resolutions on the action of the Bishop. One of the trustees stated this morning that the meeting voted unani-mously to respectfully refuse to receive Rev. Mr. Phelps. If the Bishop refuses to re-consider his action the church will con-ticulate the second that the second that the second the second that the second consider his action the church will continue to refuse the appointment of Mr. Phelps, and will engage its own minister. A dispatch from Rochester says that Rev. Mr. Phelps has been ordered by the Bishop to proceed to Buffslo and preach in the Delaware Avenue Church to-morrow, according to the says of the same and the says of the same and the ing to his appointment. If the trustees of the church hold to their determination not to accept Mr. Phelps there is likely to be an interesting conflict of authority.

LYNCHED HIM.

A Negro Strung Up on a Tree for Assaulting

MEMPHIS, TENN., October 12.-Robert Biggs, alias Charles Woods, colored, was lynched at Hernando, Miss., at an early hour this morning by a mob of several hundred men from Lake View. Biggs was confined in the Hernando jail on a charge of having assaulted Mrs. J. N. Raines, the wife of a farmer living near Lake View in August last. He was arrested near Memphis on September 27 and subsequently taken to Hernando. He made a full confession at the time, but claimed that the woman's husband had hired him to murder her; that he was drunk and assaulted her instead, and that Raines was satisfied with what he did and connived at his escape.

Raines was also arrested and for a time it was thought both men would be lynched. At the preliminary examination yesterday Raines was discharged and Biggs was re-manded to jail to await the action of the grand jury. About midnight Jailer Wallins was aroused, and, going to the door, was seized by the mob, tied to a tree and gagged. Biggs was taken from his cell and led with a rope tied around his neck to the Court House Square, where the rope was thrown over the limb of a tree and Biggs was soon dangling in mid-air. The mob derly manner and left town as soon as the PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. 1 LIMA, October 12.-A bombshell was exploded in the camp of independent oil dealers to-day by a circular which was sent out by the Central Traffic Association notifying all rathroads to change the rate of tank cars to nearly double the former rate. This is supposed to come from the Standard Oil Company, who have adopted this device to drive all independent dealers out of the market. A protest signed by all the leading oil dealers in the city has been forwarded to George P. Blanchard, Chairman of the Central Traffic Committee, Chicago.

The question seems to be one of vital in portance to the independent oil dealers driving them all out of the market, and have the way cleared for the Standard. As

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] NEW YORK, October 12 .- The improvements contemplated at the navy yard by the special board, of which Rear Admiral D. L. Braine is chairman, are in accordance with the estimated expenditure of $8,000,-000. One of the most important is the construction of a fresh water basin for the dockage of the new steel ships when they are not in service. There will be large pipes through which there will be a constant flow of fresh water from artesian wells so that the deterioration by fouling and corrosion by contact with salt water will be removed. A big stone wall is to be built all around the dock, with great gates com-municating with the Whitney basin, through which vessels may pass and be
